Volleyball

Who: Interested Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth grade girls

What: Volleyball—camp and preparation

When: August: camp may begin on or about August 18th
(Unless otherwise notified)

Why: To begin practicing for our volleyball games

Coach: Jaime Mong and alternate Melissa Quarracino

Athletic Director: Steve Vesotsky

Last year our sixth, seventh, and eighth grade girls had great fun learning and playing volleyball. The competition was intramural, our girls played against each other rather than other teams. However this year our athletic director has made arrangements for our team to play competitively and we are very excited.

So Volleyball is back and it is bigger and better than ever.

If you are interested fill out the bottom portion and return to Ms. Mong by May 31, 2008. Please be certain to include a summer address and phone number so that Ms. Mong is able to reach you at any time.
